

THE BIG READ

THE ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER

By Mark Twain

.....

Calendar of Events February

Saturday, February 6– “Invasion of Tom Sawyer” Kick Off Event. 1-3 p.m. Demopolis Public Library. Receive copies of the book, information about The Big Read, receive free pickets for the picket painting contest, pick up our Tom Sawyer Scavenger Hunt form, and sit a spell while you visit with Mark Twain and enjoy free snacks.

Saturday, February 6-A Night with Mark Twain. 7 p.m. Demopolis High School Theatre. Professional Story teller and Mark Twain impersonator presents “The True Story of Tom Sawyer”. Sponsored by The Friends of the Demopolis Public Library

February 6-March 1-“That Ain’t Tom Sawyer’s Fence” Picket Fence Painting Contest. Come by the Demopolis Public Library and pick up a fence picket to paint and decorate. The most creative pickets will be awarded prizes during our Mock Funeral on March 25. The pickets will be assembled into a fence in City Park in March for the public to see.

Tuesday, February 9-Storytime 10 a.m. Demopolis Public Library

Saturday, February 13-Story Time
“Love is in the Air” 11 a.m. Join us as we tell stories about Tom and Becky’s Love and make Valentine Cards. Demopolis Public Library

Friday, February 19-Lunch at the Library at Noon
Travis Vaughn, a historian from Marion, AL will talk about what was happening during the time period when The Adventures of Tom Sawyer was set. Demopolis Public Library

Tuesday, February 23-Storytime 10 a.m. Demopolis Public Library

Thursday, February 25- 5 p.m. Book Discussion at the Demopolis Public Library. Following the discussion, we will watch Ken Burns movie about Mark Twain’s life.

Friday, February 26– Linden Nutrition Center at 11:30. Travis Vaughn, a historian from Marion, AL will talk about what was happening during the time period when The Adventures of Tom Sawyer was set.

*All events are FREE and open to the public!

To learn more visit: <http://www.AlabamaReads.org> or www.demopolislibrary.info

